No.: FCS/JR-I/2022/1402-12

Dated: 20/01/2022

Subject: Inclusion of Left Out Genuine Beneficiaries under Food Security Act.

The Department of Food, Civil Supplies and Consumer Affairs, UT of J&K, has notified "Jammu and Kashmir Food Security Rules, 2021" vide S.O. 389 dated 16/11/2021 and has desired to include the left out genuine beneficiaries under Food Security Act as per the inclusion criteria mentioned in the said SO and the same is reproduced hereunder:

I. For Urban Areas:

- a) All Antyodaya Anna Yojana families;
- b) Households without shelter;
- c) Households with destitute person who is living on alms;
- d) Household headed by a widow or a single woman (unmarried/separated/deserted);

- j) Tribal Households with no regular source of income; and
- k) Other vulnerable households such as Shikara walas, Ponnywalas, potters, cobblers, domestic workers, Sweepers etc.

In light of aforementioned criteria, there is a need to initiate an appropriate exercise to include the left out eligible persons/beneficiaries, if any, presently out of ambit of Targeted PDS under the food security net. The Government has already constituted Tehsil Level Committee under your Chairmanship vide Order No. 129-CAPD of 2015 dated 04/12/2015 read with corrigendum issued under endorsement No. FCS&CA/Food/18/2020 dated 10/03/2020 (copies enclosed).

Therefore, in view of above, you are directed to initiate exercise for inclusion of left out beneficiaries and accordingly, ensure that the said Committee is reactivated by ensuring meeting of the Committee members at least once in a calendar month subject to the condition that the applications of such beneficiaries shall be decided within twenty days from the date of its receipt by the Member-Secretary (Area Inspector/Tehsil Supply Officer).

The Tehsil Level Committee shall record their recommendations on each application and shall forward to the concerned Assistant Director, FCS&CA for further action in the matter.
